Skills & Qualities

Highlight those that best prepare you to be a Board Member

Administrator since 2007.

ILA graduate

Bilingual English/ French

As a committed educator in since 1997 with experience in small northern communities, rural maritime schools, diverse inner city High Schools and finally High Schools in suburban HRM representing multiple minority communities, I feel I have the breadth of experience necessary to help represent the voices of my colleagues at this table.

It is my hope that this associate is the foundation for a better, healthy, more sustainable environment for administrators in Nova Scotia.

Other

Final thoughts

Much change is needed in the field of education, not the least of which is the place of the administrator in that change. I feel it is my obligation to speak up and be a positive voice in this environment and to be part of the body effecting change for our future.
